Numismatic Tales

As told by PCNS Members

Wednesday, September 28, 2016, 7:30 PM
at Fort Mason Center, Building C, San Francisco

PCNS PO BOX 475656 SAN FRANCISCO CA 94147-5656

SEPTEMBER TOPIC — Numismatic Tales

Bring a mini-exhibit and feel free to speak about it in depth — up to five minutes per member. You don't have to talk that long, but a special item may need a bit of a story to fully explain and appreciate its place in your collection.

This will be a chance to hear some Numismatic Tales that members don't often have time to squeeze into a normal mini-exhibit session after other talks.

As always, exhibit items with brief descriptions also welcome.

AUGUST PROGRAM REPORT

Lloyd G. Chan spoke on

A Brief History of the Trade Dollar

Lloyd began with a brief history of early coinage, noting that some ancient coins circulated in trade outside the areas where they were coined, such as coins of Athens, the Roman and Byzantine empires.

He progressed to the early thaler coinages in German and Austrian regions to the famous Maria Theresa Thaler, which was issued for centuries with the 1780 date for trade use.

Then Lion Dollars and various versions of the Spanish and Mexican 8-Reales came on the scene as international trade coins, later to be challenged by trade dollars from China, Japan, Britain, France, and eventually the US Trade Dollar. Lloyd displayed a tray of world trade dollars to illustrate his talk.

AUGUST MEMBER EXHIBITS

Mark — Mexico pictorial token, and a Korean War medal for the 17th Infantry.

Dan — Trade dollars of Britain, USA, and Japan, including one with the Gin mark on the reverse.

Don — distributed a 2-cents-worth token, with comments on his recent trip to Cuba, where he met with numismatists working with a numismatic museum in Cuba.
