OCTOBER PROGRAM REPORT — Numismatic Books

Members presented and explained their choices of titles they found particularly worthwhile for their own use.

Mark: WWII Remembered: history in your hands—a numismatic study, his most-used reference, co-authored by Schwan and Boling, which has 2 indices to help him quickly find any WWII-related material.

Jason: From Mine to Mint, a manual on the mining, refining, and minting process by Roger W. Burdette. Also a reprint edition of R.S. Yeoman's 1947 Redbook, where he can check out historic coin values. He also brought a copy of the 2017 edition of Mega Red, a major tome on US coinage and medals from the Redbook publisher.

Bill: several titles on medieval French coinages in aid of his collection of Tête Chinonaise deniers: D. Legros, Monnaie Féodales Françaises; F. Dumas, Le Trésor de Fécamp; and S. Michon, Les Monnaies Fódales Bléso-Chartraines.

Stephen: his most used Roman names dictionary, Bowder's Who was Who in the Roman World; and his favorite one-volume resource on medieval numismatics, Philip Grierson's Coins of Medieval Europe (Seaby 1991).

Bob: his 2 main books on medals: Swoger's National

Commemorative Medals of the United States of America since 1973; Dean's National Commemorative Medals of the United States Mint. Also a couple of works on other US material: Tucker's American Gold and Silver, on US Mint collectors' issues; and a museum book on Peace Medals — negotiating power in early America.

OCTOBER EXHIBITS

Ed brought some lighthouse medals from his collection, a silver and bronze medal for the January 14, 1928 inauguration of the lighthouse of Ferro Carrila a Rocha, and a medallion plaque for the lighthouse at Junta de Freguesia.
