1215TH Monthly Meeting of the PACIFIC COAST NUMISMATIC SOCIETY

*So-Called Dollars of Century 21,
the Seattle Worlds Fair*

A Presentation by William D. Hyder

Wednesday, July 26, 2017, 7:30 PM
at Fort Mason Center, Building C, San Francisco

PCNS BBQ

The BBQ was attended by 15 members and guests — all well fed due to the efforts of the Hipples and the many members who brought desserts.

PAPERS WINNERS

During the BBQ, our host, Papers Chairman Dan Hipple reported the results of the 2017 Papers. There were 6 papers submitted, and the judges' scores indicated overall high quality.

- 1st Place Michael Wehner
- 2nd Place Jerry Schimmel
- 3rd Place..... William Hyder

SAVE THE DATE: WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 2017

The PCNS November meeting will feature a BOOK SALE of titles from the research library of member and former coin dealer Stephen Huston. This sale will be held as a benefit for PCNS.

Titles will include most of Huston's material on US, World, tokens, early modern coinage, and some selected titles on Ancients and Medieval.

Don't miss it! Tell your friends.

DAVID W. LANGE NAMED ANA NUMISMATIST OF THE YEAR

David W. Lange, who has been a PCNS Member since 1982, was recently honored by the ANA with their Numismatist of the Year Award.

David is a PCNS Fellow, recognized many years ago by our society for his original research and writings on US coinage and technical studies on mintage techniques.

David has lived in Florida for over 20 years, only occasionally getting back to the Bay Area and PCNS events. His work with NGC, and his writings in the ANA's The Numismatist have brought him into the public eye. The ANA also recognized him with a Lifetime Achievement Award in 2009.

Congratulations again, David!

MEMBER REQUESTS HELP WITH SF PINBACK

Long-time PCNS Member Leon Saryan (Wisc.) has asked for information on the pinback pictured above, produced by the Brunt company in San Francisco. The paper insert carries an address used by Brunt during 1919–1921. Was there a Gold Rush 60th Anniversary event featuring a few of the original 49ers, or is this old paper stock being reused decades later in a pin for a sports event, or...?
