Meeting adjourned at 7:25 pm.

General Meeting:

Whalen called the meeting to order at 7:35.

Members present included: Whalen, Sandra Whalen, Stephen Huston, Ed Treuting, Bill Hyder, Mark William Clark, Herb Miles, Ken Takahashi, Rebecca Takahashi, and Michael Turrini. Guests included: Debbie Hyder and Lloyd Chan.

The first order of business was the proposed changes to the bylaws as read at the November meeting and summarized in the bulletin. After a brief discussion of the reasoning behind the changes, Stephen Huston moved they be accepted and Michael Turrini seconded the motion. The bylaws changes were accepted.

The nominating committee then presented their proposed slate and opened the floor for further nominations.

Nominations included:

President: Stephen Huston
Vice President: Herb Miles
Recorder: Bill Hyder
Governors: Ed Treuting and Dan Hipple

No additional nominations were presented at the meeting.

Ed Treuting moved to close the nominations with Michael Turrini seconding. The motion passed and the slate of officers was accepted by acclamation.

Before proceeding, the assembled members thanked Michael and Sandra Whalen for their combined years of service as officers in a variety of positions.

Michael Turrini then performed a ceremony swearing in the new slate of officers.

Following the election, everyone enjoyed the pot luck holiday meal and good company.

Member exhibits:

Whalen shared a a collection of business strike Franklin half dollars in a commercial holder and a set of proof Franklin halves in a Capitol Plastics holder.
